

Everyone,

We will be using SQL Developer to connect to a cloud-based Oracle 19 server.

Oracle Server details:

User Id: <see below>

Password: SQLClass2024

URL: 3.133.92.35

Port: 1521

Service Name: PDB1

Here is what the connection will look like:

New / Select Database Connection

Connection Na...	Connection De...
AWS-Strudent14	student14@//3...
AWS-Strudent16	student16@//3...
AWS-Strudent7	student7@//3...
AWS-Student0	student0@//3...
AWS-Student1	student1@//3....
AWS-Student10	student10@//3...
AWS-Student11	student11@//3...
AWS-Student12	student12@//3...
AWS-Student13	student13@//3...
AWS-Student15	student15@//3...
AWS-Student17	student17@//3...
AWS-Student18	student18@//3...
AWS-Student19	student19@//3...
AWS-Student2	student2@//3....
AWS-Student20	student20@//3...
AWS-student21	student21@//3...
aws-Student3	student3@//3....
AWS-Student4	student4@//3....
Aws-Student5	student5@//3....
AWS-Student6	student6@//3....
AWS-Student8	student8@//3....
AWS-Student9	student9@//3....
Sys	sys@//localho...
World	World@//localh...

Name:

Database Type:

User Info Proxy User

Authentication Type:

Username: Role:

Password: Save Password

Connection Type:

Details Advanced

Hostname:

Port:

SID

Service name:

Status:

Name	User Id
Billy Oxendine	student1
CaSaundra Salgado	student2
Chris Fletcher	student3
Cody Amend	student4
Colton Parsons	student5
Don Duquette	student6
Doug Butcher	student7
Gary Adams	student8
George Cather	student9
Joe Kapraun	student10
Jon McNeill	student11
Matthew Grainery	student12
Matt Wilson	student13
Mike Behnke	student14
Mona Shah	student15
Ryan Williams	student16
Shaun Knapp	student17
Siva Muthusamy	student18
Walt Saiko	student19
Will Beasley	student20